

11500 Champions Way
Louisville, KY 40299
502-266-6526

Contact: Emily Wood
(502) 266-6526
Emily@JAMfest.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 4, 2010

PRESS RELEASE

Cheerleaders and Dancers Invade Oklahoma City!

Oklahoma City, OK – Big-Time Cheerleading and Dance is coming to Oklahoma City, OK. On March 6-7, 2010 JAMfest Cheer and Dance Events will host the JAMfest Nationals in Oklahoma City. Nearly 2,000 cheerleaders and dancers will “take the stage” for JAMfest Nationals, a cheer and dance event at the Cox Convention Center.

This event will feature more than 80 cheer and dance teams with athletes representing four states: Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, and Arkansas! Almost 5,000 spectators are expected to travel to Oklahoma City, OK to watch these athletes compete for awards in their respective all-star and school divisions. Admission is free, and the event is open to the public.

Teams will compete at this “National Championship” for awards in their respective divisions and for overall Grand Champion awards. Each team will win a trophy regardless of place of finish. All first place teams will receive individual medals, a team banner and National Champion pullover. Second and third place finishers will receive medals.

JAMfest Nationals - Oklahoma City is produced by JAMfest Events, LLC. Located in Louisville, KY. JAMfest is in its 15th season of producing events and currently produces more than 60 events all over the United States between September 2009 and April 2010. For more information, please visit www.jamfest.com.

###